Eating in Isaiah: Approaching Food and Drink in Isaiah's Structure and Message. Biblical Interpretation Series 131. Leiden: Brill, 2014.

“All in all, Abernethy has presented a valuable, erudite, and profound work in reading the book of Isaiah. Its research is up-to-date and well-balanced, rich with ancient resources, recent scholarly discussions, and interpretive acumen. Thanks to Abernethy's fine contribution, Isaiah readers cannot afford to glance over the theme of eating and drinking but instead will want to analyze and appreciate this theme more carefully and holistically as an essential key thread, or menu, in the cuisine of interpretive tasks.” (H. C. P. Kim, Biblical Interpretation, 2016)

Edited Books

Interpreting the Old Testament Theologically: Essays in Honor of Willem VanGemeren. Ed. Andrew T. Abernethy. Grand Rapids: Zondervan, 2018.
