Private lessons and independent studies cannot be audited.

Graduate School

Any student carrying a full-time academic schedule (8 or more semester hours) may audit one course without charge by filing an approved audit application at the Registrar's Office. In addition, part-time graduate students who will complete all graduation requirements by the end of the current semester are entitled to a free audit. No credit is given for courses audited. To have the audit recorded on a student's transcript, the student is required to complete certain course requirements. In addition to the audit fee, any course fees will also be charged. Part-time graduate students auditing courses are charged the student audit rate.

Experimental Courses: Spring 2025

EXPERIMENTAL COURSES (on the schedule, but not in the catalog)

ANTH 380. Man Up!: Men and Masculinities in Society and Culture. (2 cr.) CRN 13579.

This course will examine masculinity from an anthropological perspective. Topics will include masculinity in religion, politics, economics, and social life as it intersects with race, class, and sexuality in the United States and global contexts. Attention will be given to Christian theological dimensions of gender and identity.

BIOL 380/BIOL 380L. Ornithology/Ornithology Lab. (4 cr.) CRN 13569/13570.

Ornithology introduces the study of birds, including their classification, morphology, behavior, ecology and conservation. A framework for broader biological and ecological studies is developed through an emphasis on the observation and identification of local species. Laboratories are largely field-based, developing field skills emphasizing identification, survey techniques, and engaging current methods in avian research and conservation.

Prerequisites: BIOL 241 and BIOL 242. Corequisite: BIOL 380L (CRN 13570). Course Fee: $95.

PSYC 300. Asian-American Psychology (4 cr.) CRN 13571.

This course approaches the diversity of Asian American experience through a psycho-social-spiritual lens. Foundational concepts of culture, ethnicity, and race applied to individual, familial, community, and societal levels form the foundation of our learning and analysis. Although Asian Americans in the U.S. are often racialized as being monolithic, we will strive to hold the tension between shared experiences with the immense diversity within groups that fall under the Asian American umbrella. With the explicit belief that education is both personally transformative and a catalyst for social change, this course seeks to promote well-being and mental health for Asian American individuals and communities within the systems in which we reside.
