TUITION AND FEE PAYMENT

Financial Terms and Consent to do Business Electronically Enrolling in classes at Wheaton College commits you to specific financial obligations and responsibilities that you should understand. These obligations and responsibilities include but are not limited to the following:

- The Wheaton College catalog is your guide to services, procedures, polices, rights and responsibilities, including policies on late payment fees, collections fees, and financial holds.
- I am responsible for knowing these policies.
- Wheaton College uses email as an official method of communication.
- I am responsible for reading and responding to the emails I receive from Wheaton College in a timely fashion.
- Wheaton College uses electronic billing (e-bill) as its official billing method.
- I am responsible for viewing and paying my student account e-bill by the scheduled due date. I understand that failure to review my e-bill does not constitute a valid reason for not paying my bill on time.
- I authorize Wheaton College and its agents and contractors to contact me at my current and future cellular phone number(s), email address(es) or wireless device(s) regarding my delinquent student account(s)/loan(s), and any other debt I owe to Wheaton College. I authorize Wheaton College and its agents and contractors to use automated telephone dialing equipment, artificial or pre-recorded voice or text messages, and personal phone calls and emails, in their efforts to contact me. Furthermore, I understand that I may withdraw my consent to call my cellular phone by submitting my request in writing to Student Financial Services or in writing to the applicable contractor or agent contacting me on behalf of Wheaton College.
