

Index to SEVEN, vols. 1-35 (1980-2018)

Paul Tankard

This is an index to articles, not to references within articles. Essays, books reviews, obituaries, and major news articles or reports are indexed; general editorials, notes on contributors, books received, and news paragraphs are not. The essays and articles published as online supplements to SEVEN are also indexed; they can be found on the Wade Center website:

<https://www.wheaton.edu/academics/academic-centers/wadecenter/publications/vii-journal/contents/online-articles/>

Full bibliographical details of each item are given in the Author Index, in the following order: author name, title, parenthetical genre note (as required), volume number, year of publication, and page range; the journal name SEVEN (between the item title and the volume no.) has been omitted. Individual items for each author are listed chronologically by date of publication. Short descriptive notes have been added to some uninformative titles. Collections of paragraph-length book notes are indexed as single articles, jointly-authored if necessary. From volume 35, articles in the online supplement are distinguished by page numbers with an 'e' prefix.

In the Subject Index, each article is indexed, often a number of times, but descriptions are truncated. Location details give the author's surname in brackets, followed by the volume number and first page number of the item, to enable cross-referencing to the Author Index for full details. Book reviews are indexed by the subject of the book, and identified as such by the note "rev." before the name of the author (of the review). Book reviews are also gathered (under "Books Reviewed"), and are there arranged in alphabetical order by the name of the book's (first-named) author or editor; where there are three or more authors or editors, only that of the first is given; sub-titles are omitted where the book title makes the subject apparent. Paragraph-length book notes are indexed under Books Reviewed, but not otherwise. In the listing of Books Reviewed, books by the SEVEN focus authors are arranged by the editor (etc.), but they are also listed in the Subject Index under the name of the author. Where the SEVEN focus authors are mentioned in the Subject Index, including their full names in titles of reviewed books, only their initials are given. For new texts by the seven authors, published in SEVEN, see the Author Index.
